The Yennaholé was a Channel drawn from the stream of that name, which fell into disrepair from before the year (Kharana) 1884-85 during which the Rampura Jodi villages were resumed by Govt. The extended Rampura Channel unpolished its place from 1890. During the interval between 1882-83 and 1889-90 only dry Crops were raised on lands under the Yennaholay Channel. Hence re-mission.
